Questions and Government Responses

Question 1: Who is the current contractor?

Response: DHS Management Inc.

Question 2: What is the current contract value?

Response: $ 149,352.00 annually.

Question 3: What is the current contract number?

Response: The policing is currently being performed on purchase orders.

Question 4: Has there been any appreciable changes since in this proposal vs. the current contract?

Response: No.

Question 5: Is this a Bid or Performance Bond?

Response: No, not required.

Question 6: Is there a mandatory bid walk and if so when?

Response: No, see Section L.1.c.

Question 7: We additionally request the following public information under the Freedom of Information Act:

The pricing Pages, Section B of the present contract

Section C and J of the present contract: which illustrates the Present scope of work and work schedules.

A copy of the incumbent's technical proposal, if applicable.

Response: The Architect of the Capitol is exempt from the FOI. The policing is currently being performed on purchase orders.

Question 8: Can the contractor use a "Working Supervisor", which is a supervisor that actually performs production work, supervises the work force and performs quality control inspections?

Response: Yes, see C.3.b. However, because the supervisor is expected to perform “quality inspections” for a specific area each shift. In the case of using a working supervisor then periodic “quality inspections” should be done by higher company management.

Question 9. Is the government looking for a supervisor that will be on site during/while the work is performed?

Response: Yes, see C.3.a.
